

Application to Attend Beto Kairos Prison Ministry Closing Service

Thank you for your interest in the Kairos Prison Ministry. Answering the call to attend a Kairos Closing is an act of discipleship in the spirit of Matthew 25:36, which reads: "... I was in prison and you visited me." Your presence will be a blessing.

Note: An application is required to attend a "Closing Service" for any Kairos weekend.

Please note the deadline date listed at the bottom of this application: Applications received after this date, unfortunately, cannot be processed. We are required to inform the prison in advance of your intended participation at a "Closing." Thus, you must apply for each "Closing" that you plan to attend prior to the deadline date. In order to gain entrance to the prison, your name must appear on the Special Volunteer Closing List at the prison.

Approximately a week before the "Closing" you will receive information from the Kairos Team giving directions to the unit and the time to be at the gate.

Applications cannot be processed unless all blanks are completed. No one under 18 is allowed to attend.
